Empire State Building

Tips for visiting the Empire State Building

- The Empire State Building has free WiFi throughout, so you can share your experience as you explore.
- When it comes to dining, drinks, and snacks, there are several options. Take your pick from the STATE Grill and Bar, Tacombi, Starbucks, and Sushi-Teria.
- The Empire State Building is fully ADA compliant. There are handicapped restrooms on the 86th Floor Observatory along with ramps, lowered viewing walls, and binoculars. Motorized and non-motorized wheelchairs are permitted.

For more information visit the Empire State Building's website.

Getting in: on arrival, please present your reservation confirmation, then proceed inside for entry. Scan your pass at the turnstile after security. That's it, you're in! Enjoy the view.

Please note: passes cannot be used to book sunset time slots. We suggest booking an evening time slot to enjoy sweeping views of Manhattan's city lights at night!

Hours of Operation

Hours of operation vary by day. The last entrance is always 45 minutes prior to closing.

Please visit this page of the Empire State Building's website to view the current operating schedule.

Closings & Holidays

Open 365 days a year.

Reservations required

Book your visit on the Go City reservation portal. Remember that your pass must be valid at the time of your reservation.

This attraction is extremely popular and gets booked up fast. If this is one of your 'must-sees', please reserve your spot as soon as possible! You can book up to 10 days in advance of your visit.

You can also view and amend your time slot - just head to the 'my bookings' section. You will need to present a copy of your booking to security for entrance to the building.

Cancellations or changes must be made at least 15 minutes before the scheduled booking. Please remember to arrive at your scheduled time slot for the best entry experience.

9/11 Museum and Memorial FAQs

Q: What is the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: The 9/11 Museum and Memorial is more than just a museum; it's an emotional journey through one of America's darkest days. The museum features exhibitions that showcase artifacts from the site, personal stories from survivors, and multimedia displays that bring the events of September 11 to life..

Q: What is included in the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: The exhibitions at the museum include a range of artifacts such as twisted steel beams from the Twin Towers, wreckage from airplanes used in the attacks, personal items recovered from Ground Zero, and much more. Visitors can also view powerful videos that provide insight into what happened on that fateful day.

Q: What is the admission fee for the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: General admission to the museum costs $29 for adults, while seniors (65+) and students with valid ID pay $23. Admission is free for children under six years old. Keep in mind that tickets are timed entry only, so be sure to plan ahead.

Q: How long does it take to visit the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: Visitors typically spend about two hours exploring both indoor exhibitions and outdoor memorials. However, some visitors may choose to spend more time exploring specific areas or exhibits.

Q: Can I bring bags into the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: To ensure visitor safety as well as respect for this sacred space, bags larger than a small purse or camera bag are not allowed inside. Visitors can check their bags at a designated area before entering.

Q: Is photography allowed in the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: Photography is allowed throughout most of the museum for personal use. However, flash photography, tripods, selfie sticks, or video recording are not permitted. Be respectful when taking photos in this solemn place.

Q: Can I bring children to the 9/11 Museum and Memorial?

A: Yes! Children are welcome at both sites. Parents should be aware that some exhibits may be emotionally intense or difficult for young children to understand. The museum offers resources such as family guides to help parents navigate these topics with their children.

Getting your ticket: on the plaza between the Memorial and Museum, enter the box office line to redeem your pass for an admission time slot. During busy periods like summer and the holidays, we recommend visiting as early in the day as possible.

Do you still have time before your admission? Why not do a few things nearby while you wait! We recommend shopping and restaurants around the Oculus, a walk through Battery Park, a stroll down Wall Street, or a ride on the free Staten Island Ferry to see the Statue of Liberty from the water.

Please note: your pass includes general admission. Guided tours are available for an additional fee payable directly to the 9/11 Memorial & Museum.

Downloadable audio guides are available for an additional fee.

Harbor Lights Cruise: Circle Line Sightseeing

Tip for taking the Harbor Lights Cruise: Circle Line Sightseeing

Download the free Circle Line Skyline Navigator app before your cruise for the best way to enhance your experience. The app translates your cruise content into any of seven languages. Choose to follow along via GPS or take your time discovering on your own. Get it from the Apple iTunes Store or the Google Play Store today.

For more information visit the Circle Line Sightseeing website.

Getting in: no reservations necessary. Present your pass at any Circle Line ticket window to receive a boarding pass. Upon presentation, a time and date for the cruise must be selected. Please allow yourself at least 45 minutes and up to 90 minutes in advance during the summer as cruises do sell out during busy periods and for ample ticketing and boarding time.

This cruise is available in Spanish, French and Portuguese via audio translation guides. The app is called "Circle Line Sightseeing" and it is free to download and use, available on iTunes and Google Play stores.

Please bring your own personal earbuds to listen to the audio on your devices. The onboard concessions will have wired headphones available for purchase if needed. You may not listen to the tour on speakerphone mode.

Please note: all tours are narrated by professional guides. Food, snacks and beverages are available for purchase on board.

FAQs

Q. What is the Catacombs by Candlelight Tour in New York?

A. The Catacombs by Candlelight Tour is a guided exploration of the historic underground catacombs in the Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral in New York City.

Q. How long does the Catacombs by Candlelight Tour typically last?

A. The tour typically lasts approximately 90 minutes, including the time spent in the catacombs and the surrounding areas.

Q. Are there any age restrictions for the tour?

A. The Catacombs by Candlelight Tour is suitable for all ages, but it is recommended for children ages 10 and above due to the dark and somewhat eerie atmosphere.

Q. Is the Catacombs by Candlelight Tour wheelchair accessible?

A. Unfortunately, the catacombs are not wheelchair accessible due to the historic nature of the site and the presence of stairs.

Q. Can I take photographs during the Catacombs by Candlelight Tour?

A. Yes, photography is allowed during the tour, but please be respectful of the sacred and historic nature of the site and use discretion when taking pictures.

Q. Are there restrooms available during the tour?

A. There are no restrooms available within the catacombs, but facilities can be found near the entrance of the Basilica before the tour begins.

Getting In: Show your pass at the ticket kiosk located outside 266 Mulberry Street (between Houston and Prince Street). During inclement weather, the ticket kiosk may move inside the building.

Please Note: The tour of the Catacombs takes place in the undercroft of the Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral, which is an active parish. Since the catacombs are active for burial, there may occasionally be a funeral, internment, or someone paying respects. The tour may be adjusted around such events.

Best of Brooklyn Walking Tour in Williamsburg

For more information, visit the Best of Brooklyn Walking Tour website.

Williamsburg Walking Tour tickets help

Simply ask our help team if you have any questions.

Tips for taking the Brooklyn Walking Tour of Williamsburg

The tour covers approximately 1.5 miles of walking distance. It is a manageable amount of walking for the average adult, child over the age of 12, or healthy senior citizen. There are no age limitations on the tour, but you are encouraged to consider the walking ability and level of interest/attention span of a younger child.

We also recommend checking out a Williamsburg Brooklyn map ahead of your tour to familiarise yourself with the route and area.

There's no need to pay for Best of Brooklyn Walking Tour in Williamsburg tickets, admission is included with your pass along with 80+ popular attractions.
